

2017-2018 FALL AND WINTER CUBBY CAMP & ADVENTURE CAMP TOPICS

Things with Wings

Monday, November 20

Bugs, bats and birds! Come fly with us as we explore the wonderful world of wings. With two wings or four, find out how they flap or soar.

Rhinoceros Unicornus

Tuesday, November 21

Come welcome our new greater one-horned rhinos and learn why they are an animal of mythical proportions.

Fall Feast for Wild Beasts

Wednesday, November 22

If animals could prepare a feast, what would it look like? Would there be any pumpkin pie or mashed potatoes? Find out what some of our animals would have on their table for their own favorite fall feast!

Seal the Deal

Monday, December 18

Explore the majestic animals of the ocean with a special focus on seals and sea lions: the beautiful and curious hunters of the seas!

Home Sweet Habitat

Tuesday, December 19

Take a trip around the world and explore the different places where animals call home! Uncover everything from grass grazers to picky parrots and the important role they play in their environment.

Snow Day!

Wednesday, December 20

Brrrr, it's cold! Come and find out how some animals stay warm in winter. From sea lion blubber to Arctic fox fur, explore how animals survive in colder climates.

Come to the Dark Side

Thursday, December 21

A long, long night ago, in a zoo not so far away. . . learn about the animals of the Dark Side – Night! From lions to lizards, come learn about some nocturnal creatures and their night time behaviors.

All Wrapped Up

Friday, December 22

Tis the season for giving! Learn about some of our animals favorite toys. Help us create a fun present we can watch them unwrap and enjoy.

Furtastic Fun

Tuesday, December 26

Warm up with our furry friends. Spots or stripes. Long or short. We have hair of every sort. Learn how fur is used for more than keeping warm.

Animal Superpowers

Wednesday, December 27

Calling all superheroes! What amazing superpowers do animals possess? Heat vision? Super strength? We'll explore some famous superheroes and pair their power with an equally amazing animal. Come dressed as your favorite super hero (optional).

I Spy

Thursday, December 28

Open your eyes and help us find out how animals hide. Learn how camouflage like tiger stripes and giraffe spots help animals survive and thrive.

Dress to Impress

Friday, December 29

Bright colors and flashy patterns, discover just how fancy some of our animals can get.

Construction Zone:

Animal Builders

Tuesday, January 2

Grab your hard hats and come learn what animals do to create their habitat homes. Nifty nests and wacky webs, we'll cover all the best builders in the animal kingdom.

Feeding Frenzy

Wednesday, January 3

Do you eat lettuce? Meat? Bugs?! Discover what kind of animal teeth you need to chomp, grind or slurp your food.

The Reptile Mile

Thursday, January 4

Go the distance! Find out what these cold blooded creatures are all about. See our largest lizard, the smallest tortoise and their slithering friends in-between.

Dr. Zoo

Friday, January 5

From x-rays to special diets, zoo vets do it all! Campers will get to go behind the scenes at the hospital to see and talk to our veterinary staff about keeping our animals healthy!

Please note: The Education Office at Fresno Chaffee Zoo will be closed on December 25th and January 1st.
