FRESNO CHAFFEE ZOO JOINS “MUSEUMS FOR ALL” INITIATIVE TO ENHANCE COMMUNITY ACCESS AND INCLUSION Starting June 1st

Fresno (May 28, 2024) – Fresno Chaffee Zoo is proud to announce its pilot participation in the Museums for All initiative, a national program aimed at providing greater access to cultural institutions for individuals of all backgrounds and income levels. By joining this initiative, Fresno Chaffee Zoo reaffirms its commitment to advancing equity and inclusion within the community and across the country.

Museums for All is a signature access program of the Institute of Museum and Library Services, administered by the Association of Children’s Museums. The initiative enables families receiving food assistance benefits to gain free or reduced admission to more than 800 museums and cultural institutions nationwide by presenting their EBT card.

By participating in Museums for All, Fresno Chaffee Zoo joins a growing movement to make educational and cultural experiences accessible to all families. This program not only allows more people to enjoy the zoo but also fosters a deeper appreciation for wildlife conservation and the natural world.
